A QUADRUPLE HANGING BEE

A Mob Summarily Dispose of Four Murderers in California.

Siskiyou County was the Scene of the Affair. A Rail Placed Between Two Trees Formed the Beam From Which the Men All Hung Together.

By Southern Associated Press.

YREKA, Cal., August 26.—About 1 o'clock this morning a crowd of 250 men gathered here to lynch the four murderers in the county jail. Small groups from all over Siskiyou county began to arrive on the outskirts of the town about 9 o'clock last night. At once the crowd having gathered they secured an old rail at the depot and carried it to the courthouse square, placing it between two trees. The local police were called away by a sham fight.

By the time they returned they realized the intention of the crowd. The Chief of Police went to the engine-house to ring the fire alarm, but found that the ropes had been cut. He then went to the jail, but the mob had already arrived and in such numbers that the police were powerless. A number of men all masked, awakened Under-Sheriff Radford at the Sheriff's office in the courthouse and demanded the keys of the jail from him.

He positively refused to open the door or give up the keys. Finding that Radford was immovable the mob went across to the jail and got on top of the steeple which surrounds it. Deputy Sheriff Brantlaich, who slept in the jail, fired two shots to alarm the city Marshal, thinking some of the prisoners were trying to escape. He then opened the doors and was immediately seized by the mob who entered the jail. Having no keys to the cells they were compelled to smash the locks with sledge hammers.

Lawrence H. Johnson, who stabbed his wife to death July 23d, was first to receive the attention of the mob. They broke the lock from the door of his cell and placing a rope around his neck led him out of the jail and across the street to where the iron rail was laid between the forks of two trees. Johnson pleaded for mercy, but the silent gathering gave no heed to his appeals. He was quickly strung up, dying of strangulation. The mob then returned to the jail and broke into the cell of William Nix, who shot Henry Nayton at Callahan on April 21st. Nix asked to make a statement, but the mob refused to listen, and he was soon hanging beside Johnson.

Louis Moreno, who killed George Sears on the 5th instant, was next taken out and hanged. The last and youngest of the four was Garland Semler, aged 19, who killed Casper Moerverhaus at Bailey Hill, on the 5th instant. A rope was placed around his neck and in a few minutes he was swinging beside his companions. About this time Sheriff Hobbs arrived on the scene, but was met by several of the mob, who notified him that "the job was finished."

By this time the greater part of the mob had disappeared, leaving only a few on guard. Soon these departed also and the square was soon deserted. The bodies were taken down by Coroner Schofield and Marshal Parks, who craved them in a wagon to the engine-house, where they were laid side by side. The Coroner summoned a jury to hold the inquest, which is now in progress.

THE WONGO-DUKE AFFAIR.

Zeigler May Second Wongo. Smith Would Like to Meet Kilrain.

The glove contest between Duke and Wongo will take place at the Ariel Clubhouse Friday night. Jake Kilrain will second Duke. Both men are in excellent condition, and the fight will be sharp.

In a letter to THE VIRGINIAN, Wongo says: "In this fight I hope the superiority will be settled, and that there will be no violation of the law to cause interference with the bout."

Wongo says he is training in one of the best clubs in Philadelphia, where Griffin, Jack Everhardt and Owen Zeigler have trained. Wongo says perhaps Zeigler may be his second. He also says that Jim Smith would like to box Jake Kilrain at the Ariel clubhouse the 29th, four to six rounds.

The Orphan's Excursion

The steamer Pocahontas carried a large crowd up James river last night on the excursion for the benefit of St. Mary's orphan. The weather was delightful and all had a good time. The steamer returned to Norfolk at 11 o'clock.

Labor Day Celebration.

The Central Labor Union of South-eastern Virginia will meet to-night in Labor Hall at 8 o'clock sharp, to hear the reports from the various unions and make final preparations for Labor Day, which will be generally observed by labor organizations of this section.

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES.

Something More About Spofford's Payment of $22,400.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—In view of the construction that have been placed upon Spofford's statement that he recently paid to the Treasury a sum of $22,400 on his accounts the Librarian of Congress desires the following explanation be made for publication. He states the payment was what he had found to be the approximate balance between two accounts—the Treasury owing him for several monthly disbursements of library salaries, and he owing the Treasury copyright fees, the adjustment of which had been delayed by his engrossment in pressing labors, preventing close scrutiny and prompt balancing of accounts.

During the entire time of this delay, running from October, 1893, he had continued to pay in the treasury every two or three months copyright fees to the amount of over $55,000 in 1894 and 1895, exclusive of the $22,400 referred to. This was the plain state of the case; delayed adjustment of accounts and not a shortage as had been widely represented. He distinctly denied that the recent deposit was to make good any wrongful withholding of moneys due to the Government.

Fire was discovered at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon in the stationery storage room of the Treasury Department, situated in the basement, north front of the big building. A general alarm was turned in, but when the engines arrived the blaze had been extinguished. The damage was slight. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is presumed to have been spontaneous combustion.

A cablegram from Ambassador Enstis received at the State Department this afternoon reports the return to Paris of the Ambassador's two deputies, Newton B. Enstis and Mr. Alexander, who had been sent to Calcutta prison to see Consul Waller. They took Mr. Waller's deposition containing a full statement of his trial and conviction by the French Military Court at Tarnat and a copy will be forwarded to the Department.

The Indian office received no advice concerning the alleged slaughter of Bannock Indians by the whites and officials who are conversant with the country deny the possible accuracy of the reports.

Secretary Adee said to-day that he had received nothing from Minister Denby concerning information on the Chinese situation contained in the press dispatches. Mr. Adee is averse to making any comment on what this absence of official communication signifies, and he would not talk on the subject beyond the remark that nothing had been received by him to show whether or not Mr. Denby was carrying out the instructions sent by the department.

A cablegram received at the Navy Department reported the departure to day of the gunboat Concord from Chemulpo, Korea, for Chee Foo, China. Her arrival at Chee Foo will increase the number of United States vessels there to three. Acting Secretary McAdoo, of the Navy Department, told a United Press reporter that he did not know that any significance could be attached to this assemblage of the American naval force at Chee Foo.

A telegram received at the Navy Department this afternoon reported the safe arrival at the League Island Navy-yard, Pa., from Norfolk, Va., of two of the old war time monitors that lay in the James river, opposite Richmond, for many years. Acting Secretary McAdoo expressed himself as much gratified with the successful termination of the rather risky voyage for such decrepit hulks and gave high praise to the contractor who towed them north. Both vessels will remain at League Island. A second convoy will start from Norfolk without delay.

MISS BLAIN'S NARROW ESCAPE.

A North Carolina Lady Came Near Being Drowned.

Miss Blain, of Durham, N. C., while bathing in the surf in front of the hotel at Ocean View yesterday, went out into deep water and came very near being drowned. When the young lady found that she was beyond her depth she became frightened and was in imminent danger.

Mr. J. E. Luck, of this city, went to her assistance and reached the young lady about the time the rescue boat arrived on the scene. Mr. Luck directed her to catch hold of the side of the boat, which, with his assistance, she did and was brought safely to shore.

Miss Blain, after the first shock of realizing that she was about to be drowned, displayed coolness and courage.

False Alarm.

For the third time some one has broken the glass in box 71, at the corner of Kelly and Brambleton avenues, and turned in a false alarm. The alarm last night was at 11:15 and carried the department into the Fifth Ward. They made good time, but of course found no fire.

GEN. JOSEPH HOLT'S WILL

It Reached the Register of Wills Late Saturday Night.

But Was Not Opened Until Yesterday Morning. When a Most Interesting State of Affairs, Bordering on Sensationalism, Was Made Public.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—What purports to be the last will of the late Gen. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, who died over a year ago, was made public to-day in a sensational manner. In the mail delivered to the office of the Register of Wills Saturday night was a letter which was not opened until this morning by Col. Wright, the register. Among them was one addressed in crude letters printed in ink which, when opened, was found to contain a half sheet of foolscap paper, the left edge of which was burned, not enough to make the writing illegible.

Several small holes were burned in the sides and center of the sheet, but scarcely a word was eliminated. The text of the document was as follows: "I do hereby devise and bequeath all of my property, both personal and real, to Lizzie Hynes, cousin of my first wife, and to Josephine Holt Throckmorton, who is my god-child, and to their heirs and assigns forever. I do hereby direct that at my death all of my property be divided equally between them."

"Lizzie Hynes is to inherit her's at my death; Josephine at the age of 21. Her father, Major Charles B. Throckmorton, will hold her share in trust. I appoint Mr. Luke Devlin, of Washington, executor."

"Signed and sealed in the presence of these witnesses at Washington, February 7, 1875."

"Witnesses: Ellen B. E. Sherman, U. S. Grant, W. T. Sherman."

Not one word of explanation accompanied the will, and the officials of the register's office were at a loss to account for its appearance.

To one who is familiar with the handwriting of Gen. Holt and with the signature of Grant and Sherman doubt the authenticity of the document. Gen. Holt was supposed to have died intestate, and proceedings under that supposition were begun a year ago. On the petition of Washington D. Holt, William C. Sterrett and John W. Holt, next of kin, an administrator was appointed and he filed an inventory of the personal estate on October 1st, 1891, which footed up $130,665. About $50,000 worth of realty in this city also belongs to the estate.

Several days subsequent to the filing of the inventory some of the heirs of the deceased submitted to the Register of Wills an instrument purporting to be the will of Gen. Holt and dated April 14, 1848. Upon the outside of the sealed wrapper, however, in the testator's own handwriting were the words:

"This will has been wholly revoked."

"J. Holt."

I WOULD SMACK YOUR FACE.

Mr. A. P. Thom Greatly Indignant at the Remarks of Detective Jones.

Detective Jones, who recently pulled a man out of his bed and carried him to the police station and preferred charges of drunkenness, was one of the officers who raided the Chinese laundry Sunday night. When before Justice Burroughs yesterday the detective said to His Honor that Mr. Thom, counsel for the Chinamen, "was tricky." The detective did not know this was an insult, but Mr. Thom did, and in an instant the lawyer was very indignant and said, "If it was not for my respect for His Honor I would slap your face you scoundrel." The Justice called the lawyer and detective to order and the breeze was over. Detective Jones is from Boston. He came to Norfolk about two years ago and claims to have been with the Pinkertons and also to be a newspaper man.

"KID" LAVIGNE WHIPS HANDLER

Skelly, of Brooklyn, Knocked Out By Frank Erne, of Buffalo.

By Southern Associated Press.

MARSHFIELD, La., August 26.—The new Empire Athletic Club, of Marshfield, La., to-night was formally opened. The principal bout of the evening was between George Lavigne, the Sagunaw kid, and Jimmy Handler, of Newark.

There were 2,000 persons present when the opening bout between Frank Erne, of Buffalo, and Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn, was announced. The bout was a lively one and was of the "give and take" order. Skelly drew first blood and knocked down the former in the first round and the latter in the fourth. When the seventh round was reached both men were weak, but fought gamely.

Skelly got in a good right on the head and a left hander on the face which made Erne bleed freely. Erne got in a good right hander and then landed twice on the heart and followed up with his left on the face. Skelly sank to the ropes and rolled over on his side.

He was unable to get up and was counted out. The round lasted 2 minutes and 40 seconds. Skelly had to be carried to his corner.

The star bout of the evening was between Kid Lavigne of Sagunaw, Michigan, and Jimmie Handler, of Newark. The bout was twenty rounds at 133 pounds.

The first four rounds were freely fought, with Lavigne getting the best of each of them, the fifth and last round being the tamest, as Handler was in no condition to stand much more punishment.

In the fifth round the Kid got in his right on the body and immediately after landed his left. Handler was very groggy and Lavigne got in a heavy body blow, which knocked Handler down. The Newark boy got to his feet, but immediately afterward the Kid landed his right on the jaw and Handler was knocked down and out. One minute and seven seconds of the round had elapsed.

Levy Bros. to Sell Out.

It has generally been the custom for all large houses to take an account of their stock in the dull season and hold a big inventory sale when business has not been good. Levy Bros. have departed from this old rule, and now right in the very height of the season have decided to take an inventory, and hold a grand sale, and will sell every article in their house at greatly reduced prices, and in many cases far below the cost of manufacture. It seems a question of wisdom for a firm to sell goods at the ridiculous price that Levy Bros. will sell them at during this sale, which commences to-morrow, Wednesday morning, August 28th.

Nevertheless, it must be admitted there is a sort of good policy in adopting this gigantic sale. It takes lots of nerve for a firm to deliberately lose several thousand dollars, but it will be a lasting advertisement and surely set the people of Norfolk to doing some talking and thinking about the way and system which this firm generally sells their goods. It is true they will gain many new customers, owing to the fact that the people who attend this sale will observe the regular prices Levy Bros. sell their goods for and compare them with the prices of others. This is the reason the regular price will be marked on each article displayed, and alongside of it the price of the article for this inventory sale.

The most wonderful things in this sale are such goods as dress goods and women's wares generally. Goods are to be so sacrificed with a recklessness that if this house hadn't the facilities for liquidating its transactions and strong financial backing, people would surely say that it would fail, or more commonly speaking burst. As it is the public and other merchants will wonder and watch the results of this great sale with a degree of interest that has never before been shown in any previous sale ever held in this city.

Why do they do this? Can they make up such a great loss in the fall. They have bought heavier for the fall than ever before. They will sell lower in the fall than they have in any previous fall season. One of the firm was seen by a reporter and asked what this selling out sale meant. Mr. Levy looked wise and said wait till you see Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkeley, to say nothing of Brambleton, Atlantic City and Huntersville, all in our store, and the doors will have to be closed to wait satisfactorily on this great throng.

They will close their store to-day at 2 p. m. sharp to prepare the stock for this wonderful sale, which begins promptly to-morrow morning, rain or shine. Go early and tell your neighbor to do likewise. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Stock-taking Prices.

Stock-taking prices mean cut prices on all goods to aid us in taking stock. Fine muslin underwear at half price—few left; 20 duck suits left, which will be sold regardless of cost; shirt waist, from 25c up; short waist worth 50c, now 39c; shirt waist worth $1 and $1.50, now 55c; black and blue serge, 16-inch wide, worth 50c, now 37c; remnants of lawn and white goods, 3c; towels from 3c up. Special prices on all goods.

AROUND THE STATE HOUSE

News and Gossip In and About the City of Richmond.

Virginia Politics Discussed. The Election of Members of the House, and the Possible Candidates for the gubernatorial nomination.

Special Dispatch to The Virginian.

RICHMOND, Va., August 26.—No arrangements have been made as yet for the opening of Democratic State headquarters. Chairman Elyson is not giving any attention to politics as yet. He is at his desk in the office of the Old Dominion Building and Loan Association from early morning until late at night. September will be well advanced before arrangements for canvassing the State will be made. Senator Daniel and Gov. O'Ferrall will be the State orators. Others who probably will stump the State are Gen. Fitz Lee, Judge Staples, Congressman Tucker, ex Senator Hinton and Hon. John Goode.

At this season of the year when members of the Legislature are to be elected, many nominations generally are made, but not half a dozen candidates are now in the field. The campaign will be late in opening. Take the Democrats for instance. They are slow in moving, waiting, perhaps, in the hope that men in politics will turn up, while the opposition is holding off for the other side to make a start. The canvass will not be well under way before October, and the contest will necessarily be short and full of life.

Very little is being said now about the gubernatorial contest. It is so far off the people do not care to talk about it. Should Hanton and Goode enter the race, as it is said they propose doing, the fight will be a most interesting one. Hoge Tyler is the most avowed candidate. Taylor Elyson is almost certain to be in the race and Congressman Jones and Gen. Fitz Lee may consent to being entered. With these six and possibly others the contest would indeed be interesting. John Goode was a candidate for the nomination in 1881, when Daniel was placed at the head of the ticket. Of the gentlemen named Lee and Goode are advocates of sound currency; Jones and Tyler are free silver men, and Hanton and Elyson are doubtful, but probably very conservative silver men. The gubernatorial contest is yet two years off, and no one can safely predict that changes may occur before that time.

To all appearances the movement looking to extending the corporate limits of Richmond by taking in Manchester will die a natural death. The agitation of the subject has long ago. But just wait until the papers again begin to talk of Norfolk and Portsmouth being united, and then you will see hustling to enlarge Richmond. The business people here are slow and conservative, but they do not desire any city to approach Richmond in population. It was the talk of "Greater Norfolk" that caused the Chamber of Commerce several months ago to start the ball to rolling for "Larger Richmond." Including Manchester, Richmond has a population of over 100,000.

The tobaccoists here do not hesitate to say they hope there will be a bonafide war against the American Tobacco Company, which they state has ruined the trade. One thing is certain; the monopoly has been extremely hurtful to the trade in cigars. One firm here has lost as much as $40,000, and others have suffered almost as badly. Tobaccoists have little hope that the company organizing in St. Louis will do more than keep the American in the cigarette business.

THE ENGLISH YACHT VALKYRIE.

Geo. J. Gould Anxious to Have a Brush with Her.

By Southern Associated Press.

New York, August 26.—The Valkyrie, escorted by a fleet of newspaper tugs, went down to Sandy Hook this afternoon for the avowed purpose of taking her first spin in American waters under racing canvas, but disappointed a great many people by anchoring in the Horseshoe and remaining there. Among the disappointed ones was George J. Gould, who went down to Sandy Hook on the Atlanta was transferred to the Vigilant and sailed the Tobin bronze boat outside. Mr. Gould may have been out merely to try his hand at the wheel of the Vigilant and to see what kind of shape Mr. Willard has got her in, but the way he took the cup defender of '94 outside the hook and hovered about until nearly nightfall gave ground for a suspicion that he wanted a brush with Valkyrie III.

THE COCKADE CITY.

Many Matters to Interest Petersburgers in Norfolk.

Petersburg, Va., August 26.—Lewis Shellie, charged with the cutting and wounding of a negro named John Avery, at Leesylvania at a late hour Saturday night, was called in the Mayor's Court this morning, when the accused waived an examination and asked that the case be certified to the Hustings Court, which was done. Shellie was released on bail in the penalty of $200, with Police Officer Wells as his bondsman. Avery has four cuts in the back, but Dr. James W. Claiborne, the attending physician, says they are not serious, and that the injured man will be able to go out in two or three weeks.

The drought in some of the counties of southside Virginia is becoming very serious. No rain of consequence has fallen for weeks, and corn especially is burning up. Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in this city, has returned to the city from Dinwiddie where he has been holding a mission during the past week at the Church of the Good Shepherd in that county. Rev. John Kidout, of this place, has just finished holding a mission at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Surry Courthouse.

A meeting of ladies of Petersburg will be held to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the "Daughters of the Confederacy."

The public schools of Petersburg will open on the 16th of next month. Mr. Jerome Sommers, a well known citizen of this place, died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. S. W. Booth, on Sycamore street. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time. He was at one time a prominent merchant here. At the time of his death he was a member of the Knights of Honor, Petersburg Lodge of Masons and the Petersburg Benevolent Mechanics Association.

Mr. T. Y. Sydnor, of the Franklin Press Company, will leave here on next Thursday to accept a position with Geo. H. Buchanan & Co., of Philadelphia.

Mr. James W. Couch, a mail agent on the Atlantic Coast Line, running between Washington and Charleston, S. C., who has been confined to his home in this city for some weeks from an attack of fever, is now able to be out.

Miss Helen McGregor Robinson left to-day for Nottoway Courthouse, to visit friends.

THE CITY ALMSHOUSE

Charges of Immorality Investigated.

"The Woman in the Case" Removed, But the Officer is Still on Duty. Nurse Murray Arrested, Charged With Stealing City Property.

Some months ago the Councils committee investigated charges of immorality made against persons in authority at the city almshouse.

The matter was hushed up and the inmate who was a party to the scandal, was forced to leave the institution, but the almshouse officer is still holding on to his position. THE VIRGINIAN learns from members of the Councils committee that the morality of the institution is far below par, but lack of virtue is not all the complaint.

For some months various articles have been disappearing from the almshouse. It was evident that some one was stealing. The matter was placed in the hands of Detectives Hunter and Eastwood, who Sunday arrested a man named Murray, employed as a nurse. The man was found at his home and the goods said to have been stolen were found in his house. The affair will be investigated by Justice Burroughs Wednesday. Should Mayor Pettit look into affairs at the almshouse he will likely have a chance to exert his authority in the matter of suspension.
